

World Geography Academy

*Norman, Oklahoma
Wednesday, October 22, 2014*

Changing the Score in South Africa – Part 2

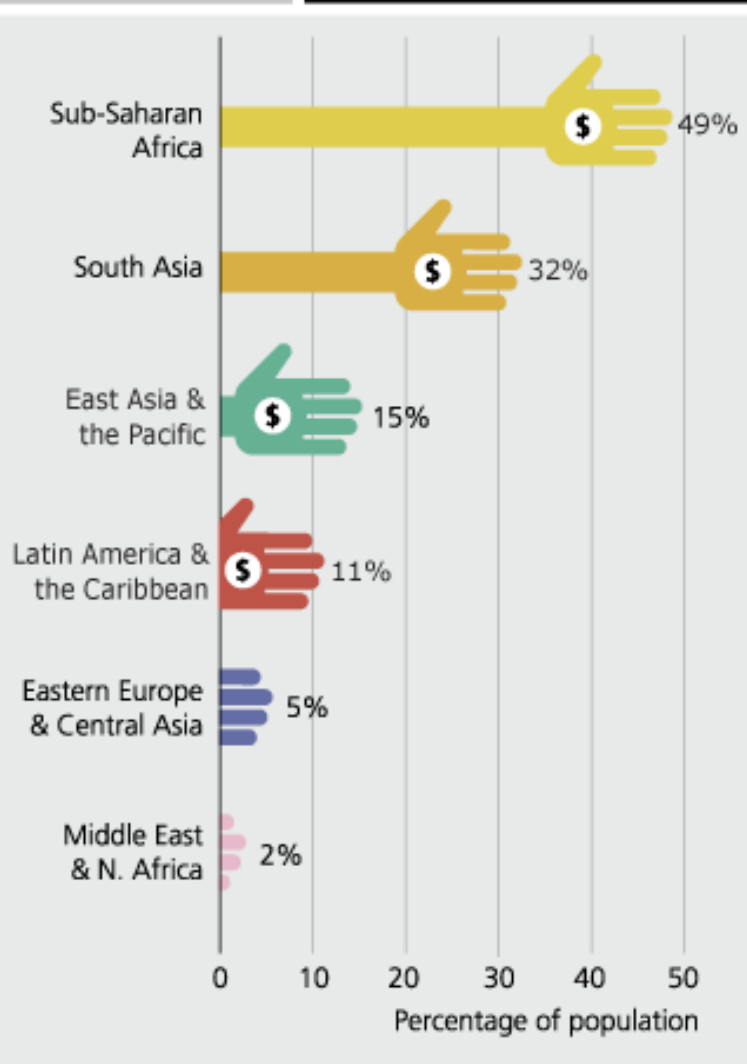

*By Teresa Potter, OKAGE[®]
Teacher Consultant*

Why is the population living in poverty?

Figure 6.1

Population living on less than $1 a day, 2000

People Often DO NOT Benefit

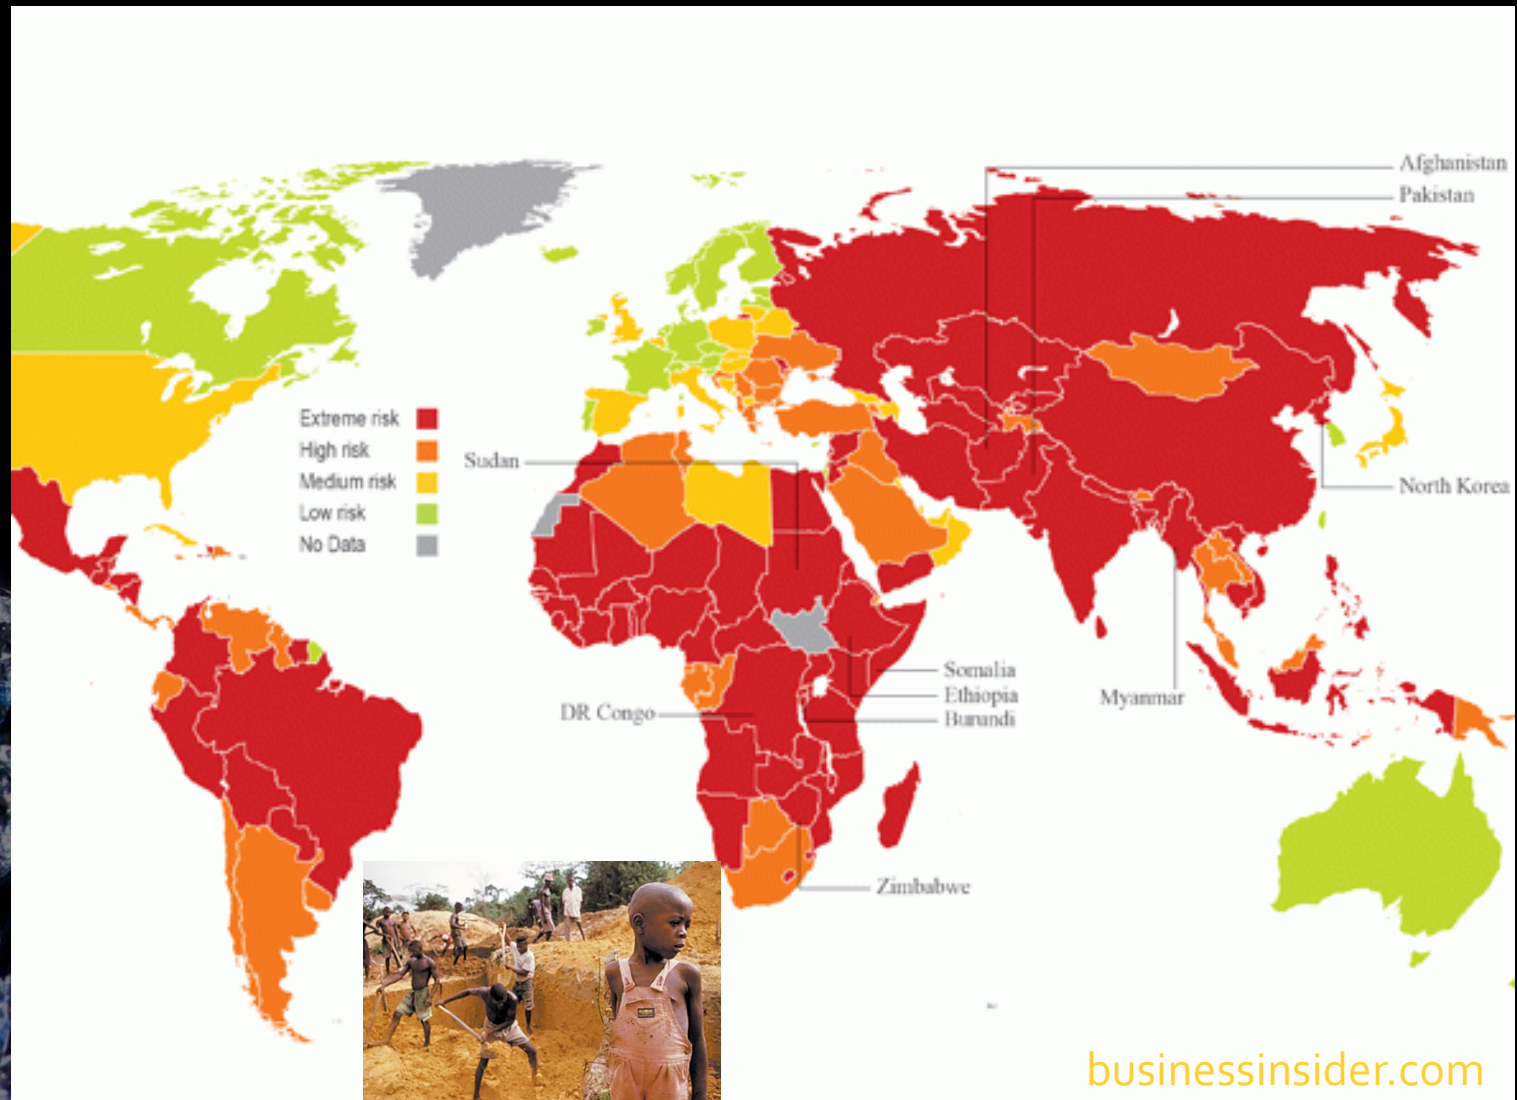

Lack of Safety

kufarooq3.blogspot.com

Child Labor Risk

Rivalry and Internal Strife

dailymail.co.uk

Environmental Impact-Pollution

coastalcare.org

Deforestation and Environmental Degradation

worldagroforestrycentre.org

Health Issues

“We can either have democracy in this country or we can have great wealth concentrated in the hands of a few, but we can’t have both.” ~Louis Brandeis

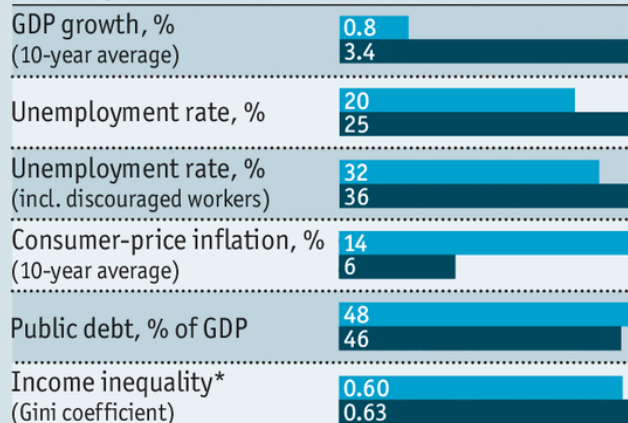

oxfamblogs.org

Closing the gap

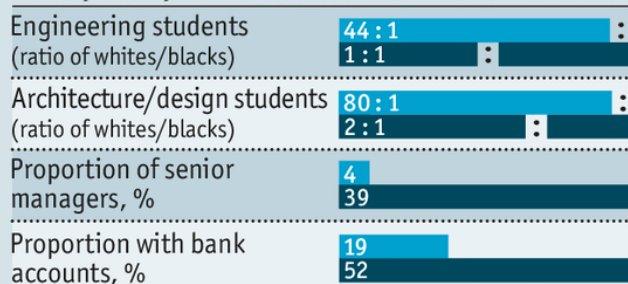

South Africa

1994 or closest year
2013 or latest available

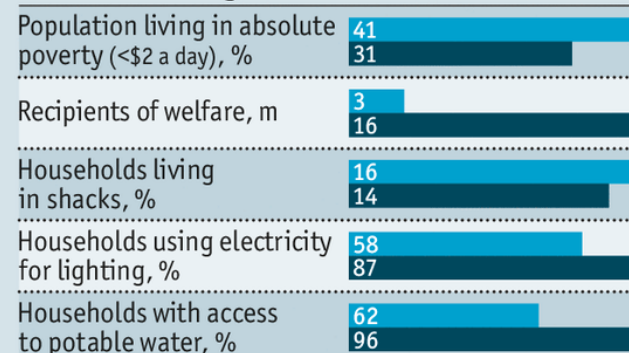

Economy

Black participation

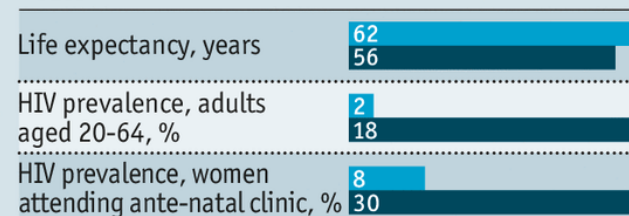

Welfare and living standards

Crime

Health

Sources: South African Institute of Race Relations; World Bank; Africa Check; Free Market Foundation; Thomson Reuters

*Perfect equality=0 out of 1

Contact

Teresa Potter, OKAGE TC

Moore Public Schools

teresapotter@mooreschools.com